LOYOLA MEETS BOSTON COLLEGE

Next Friday, April 1, after a lapse of over ten years, Loyola will once more be host to Boston College in a debate to be held in the Auditorium. The subject for the evening is aptly chosen; "Resolved; that Canada's foreign policy should tend to Pan-Americanism rather than to closer Imperial ties." Messrs. Ernie Tyler and Gerry Sheridan will uphold the Negative proposition for Loyola.

VISITOR

Father Downes S. J. is visiting the College this week. Father Downes was Director of the Sodality when he was here four years ago.

SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY

The Scientific Society will hold a meeting on Monday at 3.30, the subject will be a discourse on the Petroleum Industry by F. A. Pytlik, of Senior. As the subject is a very interesting one everybody who is able should attend.

DEBATE

The subject to be debated on this week is Resolved "that the modern vogue installment buying is economically unsound." This resolution will be upheld by Messrs. Johnson and Gareau against Messrs. Griffiths and Murphy who will defend the negative.

In Sophomore this week Messrs Doyle and Maguire will uphold the affirmative of the resolution; "That Montreal should have subways.", against Messrs Senecal and Veilleux. This is the regular bi-monthly debate.

Loyola has met Boston on two previous occasions. The first time was in 1926 when Mr. Eustaquio Escandon and Mr. Archie MacDonald travelled to Boston but there were unable to vanquish Boston College. Last in 1927, Mr. Ed. Lapierre and Mr. Lewis Phelan met Boston College. This time the debate was held in Montreal at the K. of C. Hall, reversing the decision of the previous year Loyola defeated Boston.

This year Boston College is celebrating the seventy-fifth anniversary of its founding and to celebrate the occasion a series of debates, have been scheduled. Hence, it certainly is a mark of the esteem in which Loyola is held that Boston should challenge Loyola to a debate and that in Montreal. Much of Loyola's fame has been built on the successes of her debating teams which have been a peculiarly happy medium thru' which to spread Loyola's intellectual attainments.

On Friday next, therefore, the Debating Society hopes that this debate will receive the support it deserves and that the attendance will show the visitors from Chestnut Hill that a debate-conscious student is not a "rara avis" at Loyola.

So, remember Boston versus Loyola next Friday night April 1, at 8.15 P. M.

SODALITY NEWS

Our Lady had a feast day on the 25th and sodalists remarked how tastefully Her altar was decorated with flowers and lights.

The sodality news for this week announces gratefully to all concerned that $71.00 has been realized for the stamps we had on hand, and as there will be a good price offered for sum-from now until June, it will be wise and profitable to keep up the good work.

The visit to the Deaf and Dumb institution will take place this Wednesday without fail. The delay last week was due to the retreat and holiday of those unfortunate.

K.B.S. ENTERTAINMENT

The reception and the entertainment of the Knights of the Blessed Sacrament this year, promise to outrival the celebrations on Sodality Day. On Saturday forty-seven candidates will be received into the K.B.S. and take the pledge to receive Our Lord in the Holy Eucharist at least once a week.

A program of activities for the day has been drawn up. Highlights of the day will be, of course, the Reception at 5.00 P.M. at which service Fr. J. X. Bryan S.J. will preach the sermon, the Banquet at 6.00 and the Entertainment at 8.15 P.M.

The various acts which go to make up the entertainment in the evening are calculated to give the customers their money's worth. However, the last phrase is metaphorical because there is no admission fee for the concert and every body is cordially invited to attend.

LOVE THY NEIGHBOR

world like that, and we received the formula from Christ Himself in this command, "Love thy neighbor".

We feel all around us that something is happening to our religious life; we are at the dawn of a new era and the Church does look to youth with its buoyancy, its courage and its powerful energy to carry the banners of the faith, flying high and unsullied through to victory. We need today to pray earnestly and steadfastly that we may catch the spirit of Christ who helped the poor, who refreshed the weary, who healed the sick, who blessed the peacemakers and who founded that first international brotherhood of men when He bade us "Love thy neighbor".
